MEMORANDUM FOR: C/SR/PP

SUBJECT : Publicity concerning "Mordovia Camp" papers, and further action by the Ukrainian Congress Committee of America.

1. As reported previously, the "Mordovia Camp" papers have been given wide publicity by AECASSOWARY/2's appeal to the UNO, and by press conferences and meetings held by his group with the Congressional Committee in Washington, with the UNO representatives in New York, and with the Press representatives in New York, Bonn, Munich, and Vienna.

2. At the present time, at the proposal of AECASSOWARY/2, the Executive Committee of UCCA (Ukrainian Congress Committee of America) is organizing mass meetings and demonstrations among the Ukrainian nationals throughout the U.S.A. Such mass demonstrations and meetings are scheduled to take place in Philadelphia, Pittsburgh, Cleveland, Buffalo, Chicago, Boston, New Haven, Hartford, Trenton, Detroit, Minneapolis, Baltimore, Rochester, Syracuse, Newark, and Jersey City.

3. The first of these mass meetings took place on Sunday, October 21st, in the Necca Temple Auditorium, Newark, N. J.

4. The UCCA accepted a draft of Resolutions for these meetings which was prepared by AECASSOWARY/2 and his associates, and has mailed a copy to all UCCA branches and affiliated organizations sponsoring these mass meetings. A copy of this Resolution is attached.

5. Similar committees to conduct such meetings of protest have been set up by the AECASSOWARY associates in other countries, such as, Canada, Australia, Great Britain, Argentina, and England. In the latter country, several such meetings have already taken place, as for instance, in the cities of Edinburgh and Manchester, and in these meetings several of the British Members of Parliament and prominent political leaders participated and made speeches.
